2019-20 courses

Autumn 2019

Yiddish 2241 Yiddish Culture

GE cultures and ideas and diversity global studies course

From Crackow to Columbus, from Brooklyn to Beechwood, the great majority of American Jews are heirs to the thousand-year old culture of Ashkenaz—the largest country in Europe.

Yiddish 2241 explores the culture of Ashkenaz in its many forms of expression —literature, film, folklore, family life, food, politics, religion, academics, sports, entertainment, immigration, assimilation, self-assertion, marginality, subversion, and the "Jewishing" of the American dream.

Yiddish 3399 Holocaust in Yiddish and Ashkenazic Literature

GE lit and diversity global studies course

Reading and analysis of texts, films and music pertaining to the topic of the Holocaust, the genocide perpetrated by Nazi Germany against European Jewry, and its impact on Ashkenazic-Jewish civilization.

Spring 2020

Yiddish 3371 Yiddish Literature in Translation

GE lit and diversity global studies course

Reading, analysis, and discussion of representative works and of the development of major movements and genres in Yiddish literature.

Yiddish 3399 Holocaust in Yiddish and Ashkenazic Literature

GE lit and diversity global studies course

Reading and analysis of texts, films and music pertaining to the topic of the Holocaust, the genocide perpetrated by Nazi Germany against European Jewry, and its impact on Ashkenazic-Jewish civilization.
